

The Development of Marine Department Training Centre in Pulau Indah

Start Date: 21th July 2005

Completion Date: 19th July 2007

Background

- It is the responsible of Marine department to implement policy, planning plan, research and arrangement in matters relating to marine ports, including the development of the shipping industry and sailor's welfare.
- Marine Department is responsible for determining a sea relations system which is secure, inline, useable & managable toward the growth of quality national maritime.
- Therefore, it is desirable to have a Marine Department training centre specifically for the purpose of training officers and staff to achieve the Department's intention in writing the name of the Administrative Training Institute of management of Marine Transport & (ILPPPL)

Background

- Train The Trainer Training was the first training in ILPPL which was held on 14-18 January 2008 and attended by 22 participants.
- Administrative Training Institute of management of Marine Transport & (ILPPPL) were above a 5.06 hectare Lot P85319 in Pulau Indah, Port Klang)

Objective

- The development of this Marine Department training centre is meant to be Administrative Training Institute of management of Marine Transport as the local foundation of marine centre to train the Marine officer, others government and private agency in Malaysia in sea field besides promoting careers in the field of maritime.
- The establishment of ILPPPL is meant to carry out the responsibility to trains officers and staff of Marine Department and other parties involved in Maritime Industry of the country to complement Government's desire as to create Malaysia as a world class maritime countries achieved.

Marine Department Training Centre Pulau Indah Complex

Administration Complex

Training Centre Bulding

Participants Kuartes

Speakers quarters

Boat House

Rumah Asap

Swimming Pool

Swimming Pool

Tennis Court

Participants Course

Participants Course

Participants Course

Summary

- Administrative and Management Training Institut of Marine Transport has succeeded in becoming the local maritime training centre to train Marine Department's officer and staff, other Government Departments and the private sector in Malaysia as well as promoting the sea field in career development of Maritime.
- As a whole, this Project has acheived the objective and the outcome planed.